

Dragon Bags

Bag it or bin it?

---

It seemed a trivial thing to do..
To give away my party shoe.
I hadn't worn them for a while
They seemed to me – so – out of style.

So when my mum said "chuck them in"
I did so with a wryly grin
Better I thought – than in the bin.

As time went by I soon forgot
The thoughtlessness of my cast off.
I watched the news and was bemused!!

I thought I saw MY pair of shoes
Dancing on some happy feet
Where music and laughter and poverty meet.

The shoes that once had graced my feet
Were dancing on another street
The heels still kicking the soles reborn
A second life granted – and so gratefully worn.
